

My savings started at Friendship!

One of the best ways to teach your child about the importance of saving is to get them started with a Kid$ave! account today. There is no minimum balance, and you can open their new account with just one dollar! Your child, up to age 17, will also earn a special interest rate just for our Kid$ave! account, so they can watch their savings grow. Bring your child into any branch, we would love to meet them.
